

ACES, JA & MTVNLA Benefit the Children's Cancer Caring Center

MTV Networks Latin America President, Pierluigi Gazzolo Speaks to ACES Students about Teamwork and Individuality

On Wednesday, February 20th, Aventura City of Excellence School, (ACES) hosted a special event, featuring Pierluigi Gazzolo, President of MTV Networks Latin America, who discussed the topic of Team Work & Individuality and how these values have played a huge role throughout his life and career.

ACES Middle School Entrepreneurship Classes Partner with Junior Achievement to Benefit The Children's Cancer Caring Center

Also featured was a charitable donation of $1,000 by Mr. Goldberg's Career and Entrepreneurship students to the Children's Cancer Caring Center.

ACES Middle School Entrepreneurship Classes in partnership with Junior Achievement had students starting their own businesses, selecting products, selling stock to raise capital for their company, developing marketing plans, and working diligently to ensure their companies turned a profit. The program was taught by JA volunteer Jeffrey Levinson of BNY Mellon Bank. When the program was over, students voted to donate their profits to the Children's Cancer Caring Center.

ACES 3rd Grade Class Donates Books to The Children's Cancer Caring Center

Ms. Arrastias 3rd Grade Class won the Scholastic Whoopi Goldberg Classroom Cares contest for reading over 100 books. The class decided to donate a portion of the books they won to the Children's Cancer Caring Center.

Children's Cancer Caring Center

The Children's Cancer Caring Center covers Cancer treatment costs for eligible patients from infancy through age 20, or until treatments are completed. For more information contact Lee Klein at (305) 932-1606

