

African American History Month: Feb. 09

ACES students celebrate African American History Month in many special ways. Students read, research, write essays, discuss and create projects to make the lessons more meaningful. ACES 5th Grade Students got to enjoy a theatrical Performance of the African American Portrait Gallery featuring “Heroes” of a past era with a powerful performance by award winning actor Larry Robinson and the “Sisters.”

