

Reading Buddies Peer Mentoring Program Fall 2008

Kindergarten and Third Grade students get together once a month to mentor each other in reading skills. The third grade students go to the Media Center first and select books that will appeal to their younger kinder buddies. When they meet, all go outside or inside in groups of two, depending on the weather and enjoy the company and learning experience that occurs from spending time with their reading buddy.

